1. Background

The #BeActive EU Sport Awards prize recognises and celebrates the achievements of sport organisations and stakeholders that have successfully promoted sport and physical activity across Europe.

Sport undeniably plays a key role in advancing EU priorities and is widely recognised as a powerful tool for promoting healthy lifestyles and well-being. Beyond this, sport strengthens social cohesion by fostering inclusion, encouraging intergenerational dialogue, combating discrimination, and promoting active community engagement. In addition to its proven contribution to long-term socio-economic development, sport is also instrumental in spreading positive values and championing peace, freedom, and human rights.

Through the past #BeActive and #BeInclusive EU Sport Awards, which celebrated outstanding initiatives and commitments to promoting inclusive participation in sport and physical activity while encouraging people to stay active, the EU has consistently recognised the vital role sport plays in sustaining and advancing its economic and social model. The current #BeActive EU Sport Awards build on these previous efforts, aiming to highlight and reward the contributions of sport organisations and individuals⁵ to a Union based on equity and shared values. This competition seeks to showcase best-practice initiatives and introduce inspiring individuals to a Pan-European audience.

2. Objectives, Categories and Expected Results

Objectives

The #BeActive EU Sport Awards 2025 (hereafter referred to as the 'Awards') aim to reward and give visibility to activities that have successfully promoted sport and physical activity as means to support health, inclusion, inter-generational dialogue, volunteering and peace across Europe. Amongst others, the competition contributes to the promotion of sustainable and green sport.

Depending on the prize category, activities may focus on educational establishments, workplaces or local communities. Initiatives can also aim to overcome barriers to sport participation for people with fewer opportunities. Additionally, the competition welcomes initiatives that support inter-generational connections through the practice of sport and physical activity and is also open to actions that address social challenges, empower disadvantaged groups and foster community engagement through volunteering in sport.

Besides rewarding specific organisations, the awards will also give visibility and support the dissemination of innovative ideas, activities and best practices throughout Europe.
